Local Delights - Aiding the Fight

SOTENI International, a Cincinnati based non-profit that works in rural Kenya to prevent HIV/AIDS, is hosting “A Cupcake Affair with a Kenyan Flair” Saturday, November 6th from 7:00 to 10:00 P.M. at the Peterloon Estate, located at 8605 Hopewell Road in Indian Hill. Proceeds benefit SOTENI International’s continued efforts to prevent the spread of HIV/AIDS in Kenya through sustainable community development in four Villages of Hope. The event’s theme highlights cupcake sculptures, designs, and taste competitions from local professional pastry chefs and novice bakers. Megan Ketover, former competitor from the Food Network Challenge, will be a guest judge. Guests will also enjoy Kenyan music, samplings of Kenyan inspired cuisine, and a silent auction featuring items such as an exotic vacation package, an African Beach and Bush safari, Bengals club-level seats, original art prints, handcrafted items from all over the world, gift cards for local eateries, and much more!

For those who are unable to attend the event, viewing of items and bidding for the silent auction is available online. The online silent auction will remain open through November 5th, with the live event taking place at the “Cupcake Affair with a Kenyan Flair” on November 6th. To browse items and to place a bid, visit www.biddingforgood.com/cupcakeaffair.

Reservations are $50 per person and can be made by credit card through the “Donate” section of the SOTENI website at www.soteni.org or by mailing a check to the SOTENI office at 2366 Kemper Lane Cincinnati, OH 45206.
